

Carleton's READ Initiative (Research, Education, Accessibility and Design) presents:

"The New Standard on Accessibility: WCAG2.0 ... Web, Office, InDesign, PDF"

A one-day full immersion into the why and how of AODA-compliant accessible publishing, online and in the classroom, featuring David Berman R.G.D., FGDC.

River Building rooms 2224 & 2228, Carleton University, Ottawa
9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Friday, February 22, 2013

Details: dean\_mellway@carleton.ca or 613-5200-2600 ext. 1144 or visit davidberman.com/accessibility

Register: davidberman.com/register

David ranks #1 on speakermix.com on accessibility for a reason. His passion for sharing knowledge on how universal design can help improve the world has brought him to over 40 countries. He is a senior consultant for Canada's three largest sites, and has advised governments in Canada, Australia, India, and Norway, as well as the private sector (Accenture, IBM, and BMO). David has also been appointed a high-level advisor to the United Nations on how accessible Web design can help the Developing World, a member of the ISO standards committee for accessible PDF, and chair of the Carleton Access Network.

@davidberman

